Tsi Nahóten Karihwanákere No'nenk News Release

Grand Chief travels to London, Isle of Man

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 22, Tsothohrhkó:wa/January 2008) Grand Chief Michael Ahrírhon Delisle, Jr. is traveling to London, England to attend ICEi, the international Internet / remote gaming trade show.

Chief Delisle will attend to continue to promote Kahnawá:ke as an iGaming jurisdiction and Mohawk Internet Technology's capacity. As well, he is expected to respond to current client-operator questions and concerns (especially in the aftermath of the "White List" decision).

He will join Chuck Barnett, a member of the Mohawk Internet Technologies Board of Supervisors and Kahnawá:ke Gaming Commission Chairperson David Montour at the trade show, which concludes on Thursday, 24 Tsothohrhkó:wa/January.

Chief Delisle will then proceed to the Isle of Man to participate in a Continent 8 board meeting and the ribbon-cutting ceremony for the new data center. He will return to Kahnawá:ke on Saturday.
