Land Use Planning burial sites survey

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 6, Enniskó:wa/March 2017) The Lands Unit of the Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke announced today the launch of a survey to collect feedback on the the creation of a future burial site in Kahnawà:ke.

The survey is one of several consultation activities taking place as part of a 30 week extensive Community information and consultation campaign to address major land-related issues in Kahnawà:ke. "The information collected will be used to create a land use plan framework that is expected to lead to a land use plan for the next generation," said Land Use Planning Coordinator Cole McComber.

The survey is available online at www.kahnawake.com/burials until Friday, March 17th at 4pm and hard copies are available at the Main Reception desk of the MCK.
