Grand Chief Sends Condolences

For immediate release

(Enniskó:wa, March 22 2005) The Grand Chief of Kahnawake, Michael Delisle Jr has sent his condolences on behalf of the community of Kahnawake to the people of the Chippewa Tribe of Red Lake, Minnesota.

The Native community suffered a terrible loss yesterday in a massacre in their high school.

“As Native people, we must always come together in times of tragedy and offer our support to one another. We cannot comprehend the loss to your small community, as we have never had to face a tragedy as horrifying as this”. Said, the Grand Chief in his letter.

The letter will be sent within the next few days.
