COMMUNIQUÉ

Appointment booking system currently down

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 26, Enniskó:wa/March 2021) The Kahnawà:ke COVID-19 Task Force is informing the community that the Clic Santé service for booking appointments at the Kahnawà:ke Vaccination Center is currently down province-wide.

Community members who have already booked and confirmed appointments can still make their way to the Vaccination Center as scheduled, and any residents who wish to be vaccinated without an appointment can do so by walk-in at the Mohawk Bingo Hall on Route 138 today and tomorrow (Saturday) between 9:30am and 4:30pm.

Only residents of Kahnawà:ke will be granted their vaccination for the walk-in. Non-residents will be turned away. All safety protocols will be in place, including masks (provided), distancing, and hygiene. Additionally, walk-ins are ONLY for those who are getting vaccinated for their first dose.

Details on when the Clic Santé system is operational will be announced.
