MCK Announces Five Year Strategic Plan

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 29, Enniskó:wa/March 2017) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) is pleased to unveil its Five Year Strategic Plan to the community. The goals and objectives outlined in the Plan are specific initiatives that the MCK plans to accomplish over the next five years (2017-2022).

The Plan is organized within four strategic themes, named 'Pillars'. The Pillars form the basis to support the MCK in achieving its vision and mission to serve the community.

The four Strategic Pillars are meant to:

PROTECT

- Protect the rights, culture, resources and values of Kahnawà:ke

BUILD

- Continue to build Kahnawà:ke resources, capacity, and opportunities

SUPPORT

- Support Kahnawà:ke by working together to provide the best services to Kahnawa'kehró:non

GOVERN

- Effectively govern Kahnawà:ke resources through leadership and effective decision making, maximizing the benefits to Kahnawa'kehró:non
