Public invited to Community Engagement Kiosk this Friday

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 6, Onerahtókha/April 2022) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke wishes to remind Kahnawa'kehró:non that several Ratitsénhahienhs will be available to meet community members this Friday in a kiosk-style format at the Golden Age Club.

Community members are encouraged to bring their questions, comments or suggestions to the Ratitsénhahienhs present. Those participating this Friday are:

- Kahsennenhawe Sky-Deer (lead on External Government Relations, and MCK Governance portfolios, plus Education portfolio)
- Alan John Rice (lead on Community Social Affairs portfolio, plus Environment, Indigenous Rights & Research, and Administrative Affairs portfolios)
- Tonya Perron (lead on Legislation, and Justice portfolios, plus Administrative Affairs, and Regulatory Boards portfolios)
- Harry Rice (lead on the Education portfolio, plus Heritage, Lands & Territories, Community Social Affairs, and Regulatory Boards portfolios)
- Ryan Montour (lead on Public Safety, and Regulatory Boards/Commissions & Labor portfolios, plus Infrastructure, Transport & Operations, and Community Social Affairs portfolios)
- Michael Delisle, Jr. (lead on Economic Development portfolio, plus Indigenous Rights & Research, External Government Relations, Community Social Affairs, and Regulatory Boards portfolios)

The kiosks are community engagement sessions taking place in addition to the return of Seasonal Community Meetings, the first which is scheduled to take place on Tuesday, May 17th. This will be the first Community Meeting since the pandemic was declared in March 2020.

A second kiosk will take place on Friday, April 29th – again at the Golden Age Club. Both kiosks will be open from 1pm to 4pm.
