PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Bear and Cubs Captured in Tioweró:ton

(Kahnawake – 25, Seskéha / August 2009) The Lands Unit would like to inform the community that the Mother Bear and her two cubs who were frequenting dumpsters in Tioweró:ton have been captured by the Caretakers.

The bears were first noticed searching through dumpsters at the Main Caretaker's residence about two weeks ago. Immediately after capturing the bear family, they were transported and released near a lake on the opposite side of the Territory.

Although the danger of bears is over in the area, please ensure you continue to practice caution since there is always the possibility of the bears returning.

For more information, contact that Lands Unit at (450) 638-8244.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTIONS FOR MEDIA

Please run at your discretion until at least 30, Seskéha / August 2009.
