Last day for Lynn Jacobs as Director of KEPO

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 9, Seskehkó:wa/September 2022) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke would like to wish Lynn Jacobs best wishes as she departs as Director of the Kahnawà:ke Environment Protection Office, the position she has held since 2018. She was part of the KEPO team for over 20 years and had a significant and positive impact on environmental issues in the community.

She had announced her resignation in late June of this year, but stayed on until the new Director was in place. She has spent her final week mentoring Benjamin Green-Stacey as he embarks on his new job.

The MCK wishes to say “Niawehnkó:wa” for a job well done!
