Tsi Nahóten Karihwanákere No'nenk News Release

Investigator named in Myiow case

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 19, Seskehó:wa/September 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke announced that it has appointed Me. Lysane Cree to investigate the most recent complaint against Keith Myiow.

Me. Cree is a Mohawk lawyer from Kanesatake, working for the firm of Hutchins Caron & Associés. She is a member of the Indigenous Bar Association (Canada) and was a member of the first Kanesatake Mohawk Police Ethics Commission.

Chief and Council has passed the Mohawk Council Executive Decision formalizing the appointment today.

According to procedures outlined in the Regulations Governing the Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke, Me. Cree will have thirty (30) days to present her findings and recommendations to Chief and Council.

Myiow was suspended from his duties as a Council Chief on 13 Seskéha/August following a complaint from a community member alleging a serious breach of confidentiality. Due to the nature of the alleged breach, Myiow was suspended by the majority of his fellow chiefs. He remains suspended, with pay.
