Tsi Nahóten Karihwanákere No'nenk - News Release

Chiefs pass mandatory drug test

For immediate release

(8, Kenténha/October 2004) As now required by policy, Chief and Council underwent mandatory drug testing on Monday, 27 Seskehkó:wa/September.

Medisys Health Group, Inc. has been contracted to carry out the drug testing procedures. Technicians from the company conducted a surprise visit to the Council offices on September 27th. All twelve chiefs were present and all were tested.

Preliminary reports indicate that all twelve chiefs tested negative for illicit drugs.

A full written report will be presented to Chief and Council at a later date.
