MCK receives Myiow Report

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 24, Kenténha/October 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke has announced that it has received the final report on the most recent complaint against Keith Myiow. It was prepared by Me Lysane Cree, a lawyer from Kanésatake, who was appointed to investigate the complaint.

The report and the recommendations contained within will be discussed at the meeting of Chief & Council scheduled for Monday, 29 Kenténha/October.

Myiow was suspended from his duties as a Council Chief on 13 Seskéha/August following a complaint by a community member alleging a serious breach of confidentiality. Due to the nature of the breach, Myiow was suspended by the majority of his fellow chiefs. He has remained on suspension, with pay, since that time.
