Story Teller's Vault new episode this Thursday

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 25, Kenténha/October 2017) The Kahnawà:ke Organizations Communications Network wishes to congratulate Jeremiah Johnson, the first contestant on the Story Teller's Vault, who was awarded $1,000 by our panel of judges for his new TV pilot show pitch entitled "Medicine Walk."

A new episode of The Story Teller's Vault airs this Thursday, October 26 on Kaná:takon TV Channels 300 & 399. This episode features the actual show created using the winnings, "Medicine Walk" by Jeremiah Johnson. Jeremiah's pitch will be repeated, followed by his winning pilot TV show.

"Medicine Walk is a reality-based show that follows a medicine person through the woods to identify and teach us about local traditional medicines," said Jeremiah Johnson, the winning producer from week one of the Tellers Vault.

The show airs Thursday through Sunday and again on Tuesday, with a new episode beginning next Thursday.

The Story Teller's Vault is made possible by financial support through the Caisse Populaire Kahnawake Community Development Fund. Free airtime for each pilot show is courtesy of the Kanien'kehá:ka Onkwawén:na Raotitíóhkwa Cultural Center, who operate Kaná:takon TV.
