Tsi Nahóten Karihwanákere No'nenk - News Release

Grand Chief invites community's input re: Assembly of First Nations

For immediate release

(28, Kenténha/October 2004) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke (MCK) has received notice that the Assembly of First Nations Renewal Commission will be holding Public Hearings at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Montreal on November 10 and 11.

The AFN Renewal Commission was created to find ways to make the AFN more relevant, responsive and effective for First nations and their citizens.

Community members are also being invited to take part in the hearing process. Those interested may contact the Renewal Commission directly at 1-866-869-6789).

Grand Chief Michael Delisle, Jr. is planning to attend the meetings and is offering another option to community members: if you wish, Chief Delisle is available to bring your concerns/ideas/questions to the hearings and speak on your behalf. You may contact him at the MCK offices at 632-7500.
