Tsi Nahóten Karihwanákere No'nenk News Release

Myiow removed by Chief & Council

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 29, Kenténha/October 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke announced that Keith Myiow has been formally removed from office by virtue of a vote of non-confidence held this morning at the duly convened meeting of Chief & Council.

The decision was made after Chief & Council reviewed the independent report prepared by Kanésatake lawyer Lysane Cree, in which she indicated that Myiow was in breach of the MCK's confidentiality guidelines. While Me Cree recommended that Myiow be suspended, Chief & Council decided to remove him from office.

Eight (8) Chiefs voted for the vote of non-confidence. Chief Martin Leborgne voted against it. Chiefs Mike Bush and John Dee Delormier were not present.

In accordance with the Kahnawá:ke Election Regulations Law, a by-election will be held to fill the vacated seat on Council.
