PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Snow Removal Program for Elderly & Handicapped

(Kahnawá:ke – 5, Kentenhkó:wa / November 2007) The Special Projects Division of the Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke (MCK) is pleased to announce the return of snow removal services for Elderly & Disabled Kahnawakehró:non for the upcoming winter season.

The goal of the program is to accommodate residents who cannot afford a private service or do not have family able to assist, by providing snow removal for access to residences for emergency purposes.

New applicants will need to fill out an application form which can be picked up at the main reception of the MCK. Previous clientele can re-apply for this service by telephone.

The program will be in operation from November 15, 2007 to April 14, 2008. Any person wishing to apply can obtain full details about this service by contacting Sheridan Ross, Special Projects Officer, at 450 632 7500.
