Polson-Lahache New Interim Director of Public Relations

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 12, Kentenhkó:wa/November 2020) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke Public Relations Unit is pleased to announce that Justus Polson-Lahache has been named Interim Director of Public Relations (PR) for a one year period, beginning on Monday, November 16.

Polson-Lahache has been working with MCK PR since 2006 and is replacing Neil McComber, who will be pursuing a new career at Tewatohni'saktha.

Polson-Lahache has been integral in the growth of the PR Unit and has demonstrated his willingness to take on the challenge as Director. He has led in the development of the MCK's online presence, developing and maintaining several important Community websites and has been the main cog with the Facebook pages for the MCK and Kahnawake 911. Polson-Lahache has performed just about every job with MCK PR. He is well respected amongst his peers, throughout the Organization, and within the Community.

"The Public Relations Unit is always evolving, and Justus always played a role in that," said Neil McComber, former Director of MCK Public Relations. "He was the first person I hired, and I have no doubt the Unit will continue to evolve under his direction."
