Independent consultants deliver Seigneurie report

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 13, Kentenhkó:wa/November 2006) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke (MCK) today received a report on the recent Seigneurie of Sault St. Louis community consultation. The report was delivered to Chief and Council by Dr. Gerald Taiaiake Alfred, the coordinator of the independent group contracted by the MCK to do the work.

The report details the results from one-on-one and group consultation sessions with community members regarding the Seigneurie land grievance.

The consultation was carried out from August to October, with 133 community members taking part.

Chief and Council is expected to incorporate details of the report for its on-going consultation and communication with the community on the Seigneurie negotiation process.
