Seigneurie Community Group Delivers Interim Report

For immediate release

(Kahnawá:ke – 14, Kentehkó:wa/November 2007) The Seigneurie of Sault St.Louis Technical Team of the Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke (MCK) announced today that it has received a progress report from the Seigneurie Community Group.

This preliminary report is meant as a means to update the MCK on the group's progress. The Seigneurie Community Group has been meeting with community members, providing them with an update on the Seigneurie file. The group has also been gathering comments, suggestions and recommendations community members may have on the Seigneurie file.

The Seigneurie Community Group was hired in October, and will provide its final report to Chief and Council in February 2008.

The Seigneurie Community Group will be providing the community with updates on its progress through the local media.
