Tsi Nahóten Karihwanákere No'nenk News Release

MCK TV Show Now Available on-line

For immediate release

(November / Kentenhkó:wa 30, 2004) People who do not have access to Kahnawake's Local Cable stations can now view segments from the Mohawk Council of Kahnawake's TV Show Kwatokent TV via the internet.

Kwatokent TV just finished up its third season and anyone with an internet connection can now view some segments of the popular bi-weekly show on-line by logging on to www.kahnawake.com and clicking on the "News" button.

The web site offers up to 5 segments and currently includes the Grand Opening of the National Museum of the American Indian in Washington, DC and a feature on a local band that opened up for Van Halen recently. Every two weeks, one new segment will be added.

To keep track of Kwatokent TV on-line, individuals can continue to check the site or sign up for the MCK's information e-mailing list, which keeps individuals up to date on MCK information, such as press releases, emergency information, health warnings, etc. right to your home e-mail address. Individuals can sign-up for the mailing list on the web site.
