REGULATIONS CONCERNING INTERACTIVE GAMING

These Regulations were enacted by the Kahnawá:ke Gaming Commission on 08 Ohiarihkó:wa/July, 1999 pursuant to Section 24.1 of the Kahnawá:ke Gaming Law and were amended on: 26 Ennisko:wa/March, 2001, 28 Kentenhko:wa/November, 2001, 9 Kentenhko:wa/November, 2006 and 29 Enniskó:wa/March, 2007

PART I: APPLICATION AND PURPOSE

|--|----|--|
| Application of these Regulations | 1. | These Regulations apply to all interactive gaming based in and offered from within the Territory, including interactive gaming involving players situated both within and outside the Territory. |
| Licences and authorisations | 2. | The Commission may, subject to the provisions of the Kahnawá:ke Gaming Law (the "Law") and these Regulations, issue such licences and authorisations as are necessary to ensure proper and effective regulation of interactive gaming based in and offered from within the Territory. |
| Harmonisation with comparable jurisdictions | 3. | These Regulations may serve as a basis for the harmonisation of regulatory schemes concerning interactive gaming in comparable jurisdictions and for co-operation and mutual assistance between the Commission and other regulatory and law enforcement agencies. However, these Regulations are not dependent on the ratification or approval of any other jurisdiction or agency. |
| Purpose | 4. | The purposes of these Regulations are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) to provide a lawful basis for the regulation and control of interactive gaming based in or offered from within the Territory as a means of promoting and preserving economic development, self-sufficiency and peace, order and good government within the Territory;(b) to ensure that interactive gaming is conducted responsibly, fairly, honestly and in the best interests of Kahnawá:kero:non and all other affected parties;(c) to ensure that adequate safeguards are established and enforced to prevent interactive gaming from being associated in any way with crime or criminality;(d) to ensure that the operators of interactive games treat players fairly; that they pay winners promptly and that all information related to player accounts is held in the strictest confidence; and(e) to protect persons under the age of eighteen (18) years and other vulnerable persons from being harmed or exploited by interactive gaming. |
| Prohibition | 5. | Except as permitted by these Regulations, interactive gaming based in or offered from within the Territory is prohibited. |
| Laws of comparable jurisdictions | 6. | Authorised Client Providers are responsible for ensuring that their operations conform to the applicable laws and regulations of comparable jurisdictions, including but not limited to any laws and regulations concerning advertising within the comparable jurisdiction. |

PART II: DEFINITIONS

- | | | |
|--------------------------------------|----|--|
| Definitions have same meaning | 7. | The definitions provided in the Law have the same meaning in these Regulations. |
| "Interactive gaming" | 8. | Notwithstanding any provision of these Regulations, the Commission may, by amendment to these Regulations or by written directive, provide |

Definitions 9.

that a specified activity, or an activity carried on in specified circumstances, is or is not to be treated for the purposes of these Regulations as being "interactive gaming".

For the purposes of these Regulations:

"applicant" means any person that has applied for an Interactive Gaming Licence, a Client Provider Authorisation, Key Person Licence or a renewal of an Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence;

| Types of licences and authorisations | 10. | The Commission may issue the following types of licences and authorisations: |
| | | (a) an Interactive Gaming Licence; |
| | | (b) Client Provider Authorisations; and |
| | | (c) Key Person Licences. |
| Appending Client Provider Authorisation | 11. | All Client Provider Authorisations issued by the Commission must be appended to a valid Interactive Gaming Licence. |
| Validity of Client Provider Authorisation | 12. | A Client Provider Authorisation is only valid and enforceable for so long as the Interactive Gaming Licence to which it is appended is in good standing. |
| Joint responsibility | 13. | A Licence holder is jointly responsible for the acts or omissions of an Authorised Client Provider that are in breach of the Law or these Regulations, provided that the Licence holder: |
| | | (a) was aware, or should reasonably have been aware, of the act or omission; and |
| | | (b) failed: |
| | | (i) to take steps to prevent the breach; or |
| | | (ii) to notify the Commission of the breach. |
| Breach by a Licence holder | 14. | Any breach of the Law or these Regulations by a Licence holder may result in the suspension or revocation of its Interactive Gaming Licence and the Client Provider Authorisations appended thereto, and/or the imposition of such fines as are prescribed in these Regulations. |
| Breach by an Authorised Client Provider | 15. | Any breach of the Law or these Regulations by an Authorised Client Provider may result in the suspension or revocation of its Client Provider Authorisation, and of the Interactive Gaming Licence to which the Client |

- Provider Authorisation is appended, and/or the imposition of such fines as are prescribed in these Regulations.
- Costs of applications* 16. All applicants are responsible to the Commission for all costs incurred by the Commission related to the processing of an application. In the event these costs exceed the amount of the application fee, the Commission will notify the applicant in writing to provide a further fee in such amount as the Commission may determine. In the event the Commission does not receive payment of the further fee within ten (10) days of the date of the Commission's notice to the applicant, processing of the application will be suspended until the further fee is received or, if a licence or authorisation has already been granted, it may be suspended or revoked.
- Discretion to deny* 17. The Commission, in its sole discretion, may deny any application even if the requirements set out in these Regulations have been met.
- Form of Interactive Gaming Licence and Client Provider Authorisation* 18. An Interactive Gaming Licence and Client Provider Authorisations will be in the form prescribed by the Commission and will, in addition to any other matter which the Commission deems to be appropriate, specify:
- (a) the name, address, telephone number, fax number and email address of the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider;
 - (b) the address of the Licence holder's premises from which the Authorised Client Provider will conduct interactive gaming;
 - (c) the authorised games the Authorised Client Provider is permitted to conduct;
 - (d) commencement and termination dates of the licence or authorisation;
 - (e) any other terms and conditions that are in the public interest and that the Commission, in its sole discretion, considers necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of interactive games;
 - (f) a clause stating that the Commission and its members, employees and agents are not liable for any damages, losses, costs or liabilities incurred by a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider; and
 - (g) a clause stating that the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider has agreed to indemnify the Commission against any claims, demands or actions and any resulting damages, awards or costs (including legal costs) brought by any third party against the Commission in relation to the acts or omissions of a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider.
- General restrictions* 19. An Interactive Gaming Licence and a Client Provider Authorisation:
- (a) subject to the provisions of these Regulations, may be amended, suspended or revoked for any breach of the Law, these Regulations, the terms and conditions of the Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation or any direction issued by the Commission;
 - (b) are not valid unless and until the prescribed fees have been paid in full, and
 - (c) may not be sold, transferred, mortgaged or assigned.

- Restrictions* 20. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations, an Authorised Client Provider, including their respective members, shareholders, directors, officers, employees (contractual or otherwise) and agents must not engage in the following activities by way of voice communication with a player, through any device or means:
- (a) betting;
 - (b) receiving or accepting instructions in relation to the deposit or withdrawal of funds into or from a player's account;
 - (c) offering a player incentives or bonuses or encouraging a player to increase their participation in interactive gaming.

PART IV: LICENSING - ASSESSING SUITABILITY

- Initial investigations* 21. The Commission, or such person as the Commission may appoint as an Approved Agent for the purpose, will conduct a thorough investigation to determine an applicant's suitability to hold an Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence.
- Other investigations* 22. The Commission, or such person as the Commission may appoint as an Approved Agent for the purpose, may at any time after a licence or authorisation has been granted, investigate a Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person if the Commission reasonably suspects the Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person is not, or is no longer, suitable to hold a licence or authorisation issued by the Commission.
- Information for investigation* 23. In investigating a Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person the Commission may, by written notice given to the person, require the person to give the Commission information or documentation the Commission considers relevant to the investigation and the person must comply with the requirement.
- Assessing suitability* 24. The Commission may consider an applicant suitable to hold an Interactive Gaming Licence, an Client Provider Authorisation or a Key Person Licence, if the applicant satisfies the Commission that:
- (a) in the case of an individual, the applicant is a person of good character, honesty and integrity; taking into consideration any matter the Commission considers relevant, including but not limited to the following:
 - (i) personal, professional and business associations;
 - (ii) history of criminal convictions;
 - (iii) history of civil litigation;
 - (iv) credit history or bankruptcies;
 - (v) personal and professional references;

- (e) Key Person Licence Application fee in the amount of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) for each proposed key person;

- (f) a letter from the holder of a valid Interactive Gaming Licence, indicating that it is aware of and consents to having the applicant's Client Provider Authorisation, if it is granted, appended to the Interactive Gaming Licence;
 - (g) except as otherwise directed by the Commission, a Control System Submission, in the form attached as Schedule 1" to these Regulations;
 - (h) an application fee in the amount of Twenty Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars, which includes:
 - (i) the estimated cost of conducting the Commission's due diligence regarding the applicant and the individuals who have provided Personal Information Forms (non-refundable); and
 - (ii) the first annual licensing fee (refundable if an application is not granted);
 but which does not include any costs associated with the Commission's assessment of the applicant's Control System Submission - which cost will be paid by the applicant to the Commission upon being presented the appropriate invoice.
- Granting a Client Provider Authorisation - Considerations* 36. The Commission may grant a Client Provider Authorisation only if the applicant satisfies the Commission that:
- (a) the applicant is suitable to hold an Client Provider Authorisation;
 - (b) each director, shareholder with ten percent (10%) or more ownership of or controlling interest in the applicant, is a suitable person;
 - (c) each of the applicant's key persons are suitable persons;
 - (d) the applicant is the owner or licensee of control systems that are capable of providing fair and reliable interactive gaming and that satisfy each of the other requirements of a control system as defined by these Regulations;
 - (e) the Commission and the Applicant have agreed on the design of, and an implementation schedule for, a continuous compliance program;
 - (f) the applicant is a business entity that has a good business reputation, sound current financial position and financial background;
 - (g) the applicant has satisfied any other requirement that the Commission, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate.
- Independent consideration* 37. The Commission will consider each application for a Client Provider Authorisation independently from the Interactive Gaming Licence to which it is proposed to be appended and independently from any other Client Provider Authorisation already appended to the Interactive Gaming Licence.
- Decision* 38. Subject to the foregoing section, the Commission will promptly consider the application and will:
- (a) grant the application and issue a Client Provider Authorisation for an initial term of six (6) months;
 - (b) deny the application; or
 - (c) return the application to the proposed client provider with a request for additional information.
- Reasons for refusal* 39. In the event an application is denied, the Commission will give its reasons for the refusal in writing to the applicant.
- Notification* 40. In the event an application is granted:

- (a) the Commission will notify in writing, the Authorised Client Provider and the holder of the Interactive Gaming Licence to which the Client Provider Authorisation is to be appended;
 - (b) the Client Provider Authorisation will be appended to the Licence holder's Interactive Gaming Licence;
 - (c) an original Client Provider Authorisation certificate will be provided to the Authorised Client Provider.
- Initial term* 41. During the initial six (6) month term after the issuance of a Client Provider Authorisation, the Authorised Client Provider must implement, to the Commission's satisfaction, the appropriate continuous compliance program.
- Renewing initial Client Provider Authorisation - Considerations* 42. Not less than thirty (30) days prior to the expiry of the initial six (6) month period after the issuance of a Client Provider Authorisation, the Commission will review the Authorised Client Provider's performance during this period of time, and will in particular consider whether:
- (a) the Authorised Client Provider has satisfactorily implemented the appropriate continuous compliance program;
 - (b) there have been an inordinate number of complaints from players or other third parties in relation to the Authorised Client Provider's operations, control systems, payment processes or any other matter;
 - (c) the Authorised Client Provider has breached these Regulations or any other law applicable within the Territory; and
 - (d) the Authorised Client Provider has committed any other act or omission that negatively affected the credibility or reputation of the Commission, the Territory or any person or entity within the Territory.
- Decision* 43. As soon as possible after the review referred to in the foregoing section 42, and in any event prior to the expiry of the initial six (6) month, the Commission will, based on the information reviewed:
- (a) renew the Client Provider Authorisation for a term not exceeding two years;
 - (b) not renew the Client Provider Authorisation; or
 - (c) extend the term of the Client Provider Authorisation for another three months.
- Extensions* 44. If a Client Provider Authorisation is extended pursuant to subsection 43(c) the provisions of sections 42 and 43 will apply, mutatis mutandis.
- Limitation on extensions* 45. A Client Provider Authorisation may not be extended pursuant to subsection 43(c) more than once.

PART VII: SECONDARY CLIENT PROVIDER AUTHORISATIONS

- Application for Secondary Client Provider Authorisation* 46. An application for a Secondary Client Provider Authorisation may be submitted to the Commission by:
- (a) an applicant who is not an Authorised Client Provider, or
 - (b) an Authorised Client Provider.
- Application by an applicant* 47. If the application for a Secondary Client Provider Authorisation is made by an applicant who is not an Authorised Client Provider:
- (a) the application must be submitted to the Commission in the form

- attached as Schedule "F" to these Regulations, and
- (b) the provisions of these Regulations for submitting, receiving, reviewing and deciding an application for a Client Provider Authorisation will also apply to an application for a Secondary Client Provider Authorisation, mutatis mutandis;
 - (c) the application must be accompanied by an application fee in the amount of Twenty Five Thousand ($25,000.00) Dollars.
- Application by an Authorised Client Provider* 48. If the application for a Secondary Client Provider Authorisation is made by an Authorised Client Provider:
- (a) the applications must be submitted to the Commission in the form attached as Schedule "G" to these Regulations;
 - (b) provided the Commission is satisfied that there are no changes to the ownership, control or management of the Authorised Client Provider or to its control systems, the provisions of these Regulations for reviewing the suitability of the Authorised Client Provider, its key persons and control systems will not apply;
 - (c) the application must be accompanied by an application fee in the amount of Fifteen Thousand ($15,000.00) Dollars.
- Criteria for assessing application* 49. The Commission may issue to an applicant a Secondary Client Provider Authorisation if the Commission is satisfied that:
- (a) the applicant holds a valid licence to operate interactive gaming issued by a comparable jurisdiction (the "primary jurisdiction");
 - (b) the applicant or Authorised Client Provider has its head office and primary focus of operations in the primary jurisdiction;
 - (c) the same type of gaming activity offered, or authorised to be offered, by the applicant or Authorised Client Provider from its servers located within Kahnawá:ke are also offered, or authorised to be offered, from servers located within the primary jurisdiction.
- Proof of licence in primary jurisdiction* 50. Proof of a valid licence from the primary jurisdiction must be provided to the Commission at the time of the application for the Secondary Client Provider Authorisation and updated on an annual basis.
- Lapse of licence in primary jurisdiction* 51. In the event the licence from the primary jurisdiction is suspended, revoked or allowed to lapse, the holder of a Secondary Client Provider Authorisation must, within thirty (30) days, apply for a Client Provider Authorisation under these Regulations, failing which the Commission may suspend or revoke the Secondary Client Provider Authorisation.
- Application of Regulations* 52. Except as provided herein, the holder of a Secondary Client Provider Authorisation is subject to the all provisions of these Regulations, including the payment of annual fees, as the holder of a Client Provider Authorisation.
- Notation* 53. A Secondary Client Provider Authorisation will have a notation on its face that it is a "Secondary Client Provider Authorisation" and will make reference to the licence issue by the primary jurisdiction.
- Exemption* 54. The holder of a valid Secondary Client Provider Authorisation is not required to display the Commission's logo, address, telephone number, fax number or e-mail address on its website and will not be listed on the Commission's website.

PART VIII: KEY PERSON LICENCES

- Two types of key persons* 55. For the purposes of these Regulations, there are two types of key persons; namely persons who are employed or contracted by a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider to perform either:
- (a) key managerial functions; or
 - (b) key operational functions.
- Key person must apply for Key Person Licence* 56. Any person who performs a key managerial function or a key operation function for a Licence holder or an Authorised Client Provider - or who is deemed to be a key person under these Regulations - must apply for a Key Person Licence. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations, the issuance of a Key Person Licence does not remove overall responsibility from the holder of an Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation for the acts or omissions of a key person
- Key persons for Licence holder* 57. The holder of an Interactive Gaming Licence must designate at least two key persons: one who performs key managerial function and one who performs key operational functions for or on behalf of the Licence holder.
- Key person for Authorised Client Provider* 58. All Authorised Client Providers must designate at least one person as the person who performs key managerial functions for or on behalf of the Authorised Client Provider.
- Direction from Commission* 59. When a person has or may have the potential to manipulate the outcome of a authorised game for his or her advantage or for the advantage of others, notwithstanding the foregoing section 58, the Commission will direct the Authorised Client Provider to designate that person as a person who performs key operational functions for or on behalf of the Authorised Client Provider and require that person to apply for a Key Person Licence.
- Deemed key persons - managerial* 60. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations, persons holding the following titles or performing the functions normally associated these titles, are deemed to be performing key managerial functions for or on behalf of an applicant, Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider:
- (a) Chief Executive Officer;
 - (b) Chief Financial Officer;
 - (c) Office Manager.
- Deemed key persons - operational* 61. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations, persons holding the following titles or performing the functions normally associated these titles, are deemed to be performing key operational functions for or on behalf of an applicant, Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider:
- (a) Chief Operations Officer;
 - (b) Chief Technology Officer.

- Requirements for Key Person Licence* 62. The Commission will grant an application for a Key Person Licence to either type of key persons, only if the person applying for the Key Person Licence satisfies all of the following requirements:
- (a) he or she has submitted to the Commission:
 - (i) a duly completed "Application for a Key Person Licence", in the form attached as Schedule "E" to these Regulations;
 - (ii) a letter from the proposed Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider addressed to the Commission confirming the existence or proposed existence of the key relationship, the type of key function the proposed key person will perform and the type of training the proposed key person has received that would qualify him or her to perform the proposed key person function;
 - (iii) a Key Person Licence application fee in the amount of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, which includes:
 - 1. the estimated cost of conducting the Commission's due diligence regarding the applicant (non-refundable); and
 - 2. the first annual licensing fee (refundable if an application is not granted);
 - (iv) a duly completed Personal Information form, in the form attached as Schedule "C" to these Regulations;
 - (b) the Commission is satisfied that the applicant is a suitable person.
- Decision* 63. Subject to the foregoing sections, the Commission will promptly consider the application and will
- (a) grant the application and issue a Key Person Licence;
 - (b) deny the application; or
 - (c) return the application to the applicant with a request for additional information.
- Conditions* 64. The Commission may issue a Key Person Licence:
- (a) on conditions the Commission considers necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of interactive games; and
 - (b) on other conditions the Commission considers necessary or desirable in the public interest.
- Reasons for refusal* 65. In the event an application is denied, the Commission will give its reasons for the refusal in writing to the applicant and to the Licence holder or authorised client provide with whom the person was proposed to have a key relationship.
- Notification* 66. In the event an application is granted the Commission will notify in writing, the key person and the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider with whom the person is to have the key relationship.
- Must not accept employment* 67. A person must not accept employment or provide services as a key person with a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider, or agree to carry out the duties of a key person, unless the person has applied for and been granted a Key Person Licence. A Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider must not employ a person to carry out the functions of a key person, unless the person has applied for and been granted a Key Person Licence.
- Directive to appear before* 68. The Commission may, by issuing a written directive, require a key

Commission		person to appear before it to answer any questions or to provide any documents or other information the Commission requests. A key person upon whom a written directive under this section is served, must appear as required and respond to the Commission's questions and comply with its requests.
Direction	69.	Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations, If the Commission reasonably believes a person, other than a Key Person Licence holder, is performing either key managerial function or key operational functions, the Commission may, by written notice given to the person, with copies to the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider with whom the key relationship exists, direct the person either to apply for a Key Person Licence or to terminate the relevant key relationship, within seven (7) days of receiving the notice.
Compliance with direction	70.	The person must comply with the Commission's direction within seven (7) days of receiving the notice or such other period of time that the Commission may specify in the notice.
Voluntary termination of key relationship	71.	If as a result of receiving a direction pursuant to section 69, a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider elects to terminate the relevant key relationship: (a) the Commission must be provided proof, satisfactory to the Commission, that the key relationship has in fact been terminated; and (b) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider must identify the person who will perform the functions that were previously provided by the person who was terminated and, unless the Commission directs otherwise, the new person must apply for a Key Person Licence.
Mandatory termination of key relationship	72.	If the Commission denies an application for a Key Person Licence, the Commission will, by written notice given to the person, with copies to the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider with whom the key relationship exists, require the person to terminate the relevant key relationship within the time stated in the notice and the person must comply with the requirement within the time stated in the notice.
Direction or requirement to terminate key relationship	73.	If a direction or requirement is made of a person under the foregoing sections and the person fails to comply with the requirement, the Commission will, by written notice given to the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider with whom the key relationship exists, require the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider to take any necessary action to terminate the key relationship within the time stated in the notice and the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider must comply with the requirement within the time stated in the notice.
No liability	74.	A person does not incur any liability as a result of action taken to comply with a notice under this Part.
Term	75.	A Key Person Licence may be granted for a term not exceeding two years but may be renewed an unlimited number of times.
Renewal applications	76.	A Key Person Licence may be renewed in accordance with the process for renewing an Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation set out in these Regulations, mutatis mutandis . For greater certainty, the renewal fee for a Key Person Licence is included in the renewal application fee prescribed in section 105, provided the anniversary of the Key Person Licence coincides with the anniversary of the relevant Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation. If the renewal date of a Key Person Licence does not coincide with the anniversary of a relevant Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation, the Key Person Licence renewal application fee is Two Thousand Five Hundred ($2,500.00) Dollars.

- Form of Key Person Licence* 77. A Key Person Licence will be in the form prescribed by the Commission and will include the following:
- (c) the key person's name;
 - (d) a recent photograph of the key person;
 - (e) the date of issue of the licence;
 - (f) the conditions of the licence;
 - (g) other conditions or particulars the Commission deems to be appropriate;
- Lapse* 78. A Key Person Licence lapses if there has been no key relationship between the key person and a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider for a continuous period of six (6) months.

PART IX: ANNUAL LICENSING FEES

- Annual licensing fees* 79. In addition to any other fees provided in these Regulations, licence and authorisation holders must pay annual licensing fees as follows:
- (a) for an Interactive Gaming Licence: Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars;
 - (b) for an Client Provider Authorisation: Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars;
 - (c) for a Key Person Licence: One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars.
- Anniversary date* 80. Annual licensing fees must be paid in full on or before the anniversary of the date on which the licence or authorisation was first issued and on or before each subsequent anniversary date.
- Notice to pay* 81. The Commission will, not less than thirty (30) days before the date on which an annual licensing fee is due, send a written notice (the "notice to pay") to the affected Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person, advising of the amount of the annual licensing fee and the date on which payment is due.
- No excuse* 82. Failure to receive a notice to pay does not excuse a Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person from his, her or its obligation to pay the appropriate annual licensing fee.
- Penalty on unpaid amount* 83. A Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person must pay to the Commission a penalty on the amount of a licence or authorisation fee outstanding (the "unpaid amount") as at the end of the period allowed for payment.
- Calculation of penalty* 84. The penalty is ten percent (10%) per annum of the unpaid amount calculated on a per diem basis from the date the fee was due until it is paid in full.

- Joint liability* 85. A Licence holder is jointly and severally liable for the payment of an Authorised Client Provider's annual licensing fees, including penalties, for any Client Provider Authorisation appended to the Licence holder's Interactive Gaming Licence.
- Debt payable to the Commission* 86. The amount of a licence fee, authorisation fee or penalty payable under this Part is a debt payable to the Commission and may be recovered by action in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- Suspension or revocation* 87. Failure to pay in full the annual licensing fees provided in these Regulations may, in addition to the penalties provided in these Regulations, result in the suspension or revocation of the licence or authorisation in question.

PART X: POSTING SECURITY FOR OPERATIONS

- Posting Security* 88. All Licence holders and Authorised Client Providers must provide the type and amount of security for the costs and expenses incurred by their operations, including by not limited to obligations owed to players, as directed by the Commission.
- Use of security* 89. In the event a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider does not fulfill its obligations to the Commission, a Licence holder or to a player, the Commission may take such measures as may be required to use the security provided by the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider to satisfy the obligation in question.
- Discretion* 90. The Commission will decide whether a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider should be required to post security under this Part and, if so, determine the type and amount of security that a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider must provide, how the security is to be held and for what period of time.
- Types of security* 91. The types of security may be one or more of the following:
- (a) a bond;
 - (b) insurance;
 - (c) a lien or charge against:
 - (i) physical assets;
 - (ii) accounts receivable;
 - (iii) internet domain names;
 - (iv) client lists;
 - (v) cash deposit; or
 - (vi) such other type of security that is satisfactory to the Commission.
- Security may vary* 92. The type and amount of security may vary according to the circumstances of the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider.
- Application to vary security* 93. The type and amount of security may be varied by the Commission, in its sole discretion, upon application by a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider.

Other types of security 94. Notwithstanding anything in this Part, the Commission may direct a Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider to provide a type of security that is not referenced in this Regulations.

PART XI: MATERIAL CHANGE REPORTS

- Material Change Reports* 95. Every Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider and applicant, must report to the Commission any material change to the information that was provided to the Commission for the purposes of an application (a "material change report").
- Receipt of material change report* 96. A material change report must be in writing, must clearly identify the material change in question and must be received by the Commission:
- (a) wherever possible, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which the proposed material change is to be effective; or
 - (b) in any event, not later than seven (7) days from the date on which the material change was effective.
- Costs* 97. The costs incurred by the Commission associated with its assessment of a material change report will be paid to the Commission by the Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or applicant that submitted the report, upon being presented the appropriate invoice.
- Failure to report a material change* 98. Failure to report a material change to the Commission as required by this Part may result in one or more of the following sanctions:
- (a) the immediate amendment, suspension or revocation of the Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation to which the change relates;
 - (b) for each material change that was not reported, a fine of not less than One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars and not more than Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars.
- Application may be denied* 99. In the case of an application, failure to report a material change is a sufficient ground for denial of the application.
- Direction* 100. The Commission will consider the information in a material change report, including a material change report that is received after the material change is effective, and will issue such written directions to Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or applicant as the Commission, in its sole discretion, deem necessary and appropriate under the circumstances.
- Licence holder must notify* 101. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Part, a Licence holder notify the Commission in writing that an Authorised Client Provider has, or is considering, voluntarily terminating its Client Provider Authorisation and/or removing a significant portion of its equipment from the Licence holder's premises. For the purposes of this section, "significant portion" means more than half of an Authorised Client Provider's equipment, measure in terms of quantity or value.

PART XII: RENEWAL APPLICATIONS

Requirement to renew 102. Each Interactive Gaming Licence and Client Provider Authorisation must be renewed in accordance with the procedures in this Part, failing which the Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation will terminate on its termination date.

- Renewal Applications* 103. An application to renew an Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation must be submitted to the Commission in the form attached as Schedule "H" to these Regulations (a "renewal application").
- Receipt of renewal application* 104. A renewal application must be received by the Commission not less than three months prior to the termination date of the Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation.
- Renewal application fee* 105. To be considered by the Commission, a renewal application must contain all of the information requested in Schedule "H" and be accompanied by a non-refundable renewal application fee in the amount of Five ($5,000.00) Dollars.
- Decision* 106. Subject to the foregoing section, the Commission will promptly consider the renewal application and will:
- (a) grant the renewal application and renew the Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation for a period of two years;
 - (b) deny the renewal application; or
 - (c) return the renewal application with a request for additional information.
- Reasons for refusal* 107. In the event an application is denied, the Commission will give its reasons for the refusal in writing to the applicant.
- Grounds for denying renewal application* 108. In deciding whether to grant a renewal application, the Commission will consider any material changes to the information previously provided to the Commission and any complaints, concerns or problems that may have arisen in the previous term related to the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider and will deny the renewal application if, in the Commission's sole discretion, the complaints, concerns or problems are sufficiently serious or numerous.
- Application of Regulations* 109. An Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation that is renewed under this Part continues to be subject to the all provisions of these Regulations.

PART XIII: AMENDMENTS

- Amendments to Licence or Authorisation* 110. The Commission may amend any term or condition of an Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation if the Commission considers it is necessary or desirable to make the amendment for the proper conduct of authorised games by an Authorised Client Provider or that the amendment is otherwise in the public interest.
- Amendment notice* 111. If the Commission decides to amend an Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation, the Commission must promptly give the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider, written notice (the "amendment notice") of the change and the reasons for the change.
- New terms or conditions* 112. The authority of the Commission under this section includes the authority to add such new terms or conditions as the Commission, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate.

- Requirement before amending* 113. Before amending an Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation, the Commission must follow the show cause procedures set out in these Regulations.
- Must return licence or authorisation* 114. The Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider, as the case may be, must return the existing Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation to the Commission within seven (7) days of receiving the amendment notice.
- Failure to return licence or authorisation* 115. In the event the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider fails or refuses to return the existing Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation to the Commission pursuant to section 114, the Commission may impose one or more of the following sanctions:
- (a) issue a replacement Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation, incorporating the amended conditions, to the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider;
 - (b) suspend or revoke the existing Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation;
 - (c) impose a fine on the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider of not less than One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars and not more than Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars.
- Amend or issue replacement* 116. On receiving the Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation, the Commission will:
- (a) amend the Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation in an appropriate way and return the amended licence or authorisation to the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider; or
 - (b) if the Commission does not consider it is practical to amend Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation, issue a replacement Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation, incorporating the amended conditions, to the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider.
- Effective date* 117. An amendment takes effect on the date set by the Commission.

PART XIV: SUSENSIONS AND REVOCATIONS

- Grounds for suspending or revoking a licence or authorisation* 118. The Commission may suspend or revoke an Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence, on one or more of the following grounds:
- (a) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider no longer has, in the Commission's sole discretion, a good business reputation or sound current financial position;
 - (b) one or more of the persons that own, control or are key persons of Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider are no longer, in the Commission's sole discretion, suitable;
 - (c) in the case of a Key Person Licence, the person is no longer, in the Commission's sole discretion, suitable;
 - (d) the Authorised Client Provider is no longer the owner or licensee of a control system that is, in the Commission's sole discretion,

- (e) suitable for the purpose of conducting interactive gaming;
- (e) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider has breached a provision of the Law or these Regulations;
- (f) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider has failed or refused to pay a fine imposed by the Commission in accordance with a provision of these Regulations;
- (g) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider has been convicted of an indictable offence, felony or other crime the Commission, in its sole discretion, results in the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider no longer being suitable to hold an Interactive Gaming Licence or Client Provider Authorisation;
- (h) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider has contravened a term or condition of its licence or authorisation or has failed to pay any fee that the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider is required to pay under these Regulations or as directed by the Commission;
- (i) the Authorised Client Provider has failed to discharge financial commitments to players or in relation to other aspects of the Authorised Client Provider's operations or the Commission has reason to believe that such failure is imminent;
- (j) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider is insolvent, has been petitioned into bankruptcy or has applied to take advantage of any bankruptcy law;
- (k) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider has a trustee, receiver, manager, liquidator or administrator appointed for it under the provisions of the laws of any jurisdiction;
- (l) the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider applies for, or is compelled by any means or for any reason, for a discontinuance or winding-up;
- (m) the licence or authorisation was obtained by a materially false or misleading representation or in some other improper way; or
- (n) any other ground that the Commission, in its sole discretion, determines is material and sufficient for the purposes of this section.

Failure to comply with direction to rectify

119. If the Commission directs the Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person to rectify a matter and the Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person fails to comply with the direction within the time allowed for compliance, the Commission may, subject to the provisions of these Regulations, revoke the Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence or suspend the licence or authorisation for such period of time and on such conditions for re-instatement as the Commission deems appropriate.

PART XV: SHOW CAUSE PROCEDURES

Show cause notice

120. Before amending, suspending or revoking an Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence, the Commission must give the holder a written notice (a "show cause notice") that:

- (a) states the action (the "proposed action") the Commission proposes taking;
- (b) states the grounds for the proposed action;
- (c) outlines the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds;

- (d) if the proposed action is suspension, states the proposed suspension period; and
 - (e) permits the affected person or persons to show within a stated period (the "show cause period") why the proposed action should not be taken.
- Show cause period* 121. The show cause period will be established by the Commission and will be specified in the show cause notice. The Commission will determine the length of the show cause period which must, in no event, be less than thirty (30) days or longer than ninety (90) days from the date on which it is issued.
- Service of show cause notice* 122. The Commission must promptly serve a copy of the show cause notice on:
- (a) each person (an "interested person") the Commission believes has an interest in the Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence, if the Commission considers:
 - (i) the person's interest may be affected adversely by the amendment, suspension or cancellation of the licence or authorisation; and
 - (ii) it is otherwise appropriate in the circumstances to give copy of the notice to the person.
- Written representations* 123. A person upon whom a copy of the show cause notice is served may, within the show cause period, make written representations about the matters raised in the notice to the Commission.
- Accepted representations* 124. The Commission will consider all written representations (the "accepted representations") made during the show cause period by:
- (a) the affected Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person; or
 - (b) any interested person upon whom a copy of the show cause notice is served.
- Immediate suspension or revocation* 125. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations, the Commission may amend, suspend or revoke an Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence immediately and without the necessity of a show cause period, if the Commission believes:
- (a) a sufficient ground exists to amend, suspend or revoke the licence or authorisation, and
 - (b) the circumstances are so extraordinary that it is imperative to amend, suspend or revoke the licence immediately to ensure:
 - (i) the public interest is not affected in an adverse and material way; or
 - (ii) the integrity of the conduct of interactive games by the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider is not jeopardized in a material way.
- Service* 126. An immediate amendment, suspension or revocation:
- (a) must be effected by written notice served on the affected holder (the "notice of immediate amendment, suspension or revocation"), and any interested person;
 - (b) is effective from the moment the notice is served;
 - (c) continues in effect until a hearing date or until the Commission otherwise directs;
 - (d) will specify a show cause period.
- Voluntary suspension or* 127. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Regulations, a Licence

termination of licence or authorisation		holder, authorised client provide or key person may voluntarily suspend or terminate his, her or its own licence or authorisation by giving at least thirty (30) days written prior notice to the Commission.
Conditions regarding voluntary suspensions or terminations	128.	A voluntary suspension of a licence or authorisation: (a) is not effective unless accepted in writing by the Commission; (b) does not suspend, interrupt or negate the requirement to pay annual fees for that licence or authorisation; and (c) unless the Commission otherwise directs, does not relieve the Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person from any other obligations under the Law or these Regulations.
Requirements before equipment and data can be removed	129.	In the event a Client Provider Authorisation is revoked by the Commission or voluntarily terminated by the Authorised Client Provider, the Authorised Client Provider must not remove any equipment or data from the Territory until it has: (a) satisfied all of its obligations to the Commission, including the payment of fees; (b) provided evidence, satisfactory to the Commission, that the Authorised Client Provider has satisfied its obligations to players, the Licence holder and Approved Agents.
Notice	130.	When the requirements of section 129 have been fulfilled, the Commission will provide the Authorised Client Provider and the Licence holder with written notice confirming that the Authorised Client Provider may remove its equipment and data from the Territory.

PART XVI: HEARINGS

Request for hearing	131.	A Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person who has received a show cause notice or notice of immediate amendment, suspension or revocation, may, within the show cause period, request a hearing before the Commission to respond to the matters raised in the show cause notice.
Hearing notice	132.	Upon receiving a request for a hearing, the Commission will set a time and place for the hearing and will immediately notify the Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person in writing (the "hearing notice") of time and place of the hearing.
Written and oral evidence	133.	At the hearing, the Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person will have the opportunity to bring written and oral evidence to respond to the matters raised in the show cause notice.
Additional rules for hearing procedures	134.	The Commission may issue additional rules to govern the procedures to be followed at a hearing, in lieu of which, proceedings will follow accepted rules of fairness and natural justice.

- Failure to attend hearing* 135. In the event the affected Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person fails or refuses to attend a hearing at the time and place set out in the hearing notice, the Commission may, in its sole discretion, take one or more of the following actions:
- (a) adjourn the hearing to another time and/or place;
 - (b) confirm and/or continue the amendment, suspension or revocation;
 - (c) impose a fine on the affected Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person of not less than One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars and not more than Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars;
 - (d) issue such other directives as the Commission deems necessary.
- Decision* 136. If, after considering the accepted representations, or in the case of a hearing, the evidence adduced before it, if any, the Commission finds that:
- (a) a ground or grounds exist to amend, suspend or revoke the Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence; or
 - (b) the act, omission or other matter constituting the ground is of a serious and fundamental nature and either:
 - (i) the integrity of the conduct of interactive games by the Licence holder or Authorised Client Provider may be jeopardized in a material way;
 - (ii) the public interest may be affected in an adverse or material way;
 - (iii) the credibility or reputation of the Commission, the Territory of any person or entity within the Territory is, or may be, negatively affected:
- the Commission may amend or revoke the Interactive Gaming Licence, Client Provider Authorisation or Key Person Licence or suspend the licence or authorisation for such period of time and on such conditions of re-instatement as the Commission deems appropriate.
- Notice of decision* 137. The Commission must promptly serve written notice of the decision to amend, suspend or revoke a licence or authorisation, with reasons for the decision, on the affected holder.
- Effective date* 138. A decision to amend, suspend or revoke a Licence takes effect on the date and time specified by the Commission.
- Reconsideration of suspension* 139. If a licence or authorisation is under suspension, the Commission may, at the request of the Licence holder, Authorised Client Provider or key person, reconsider the duration of the suspension and will promptly inform the affected holder in writing of its decision.

Part XVII: APPROVED AGENTS

- Appointment of Approved Agents* 140. The Commission may appoint one or more Approved Agents to carry out any of the following functions, for and on behalf of the Commission:
- (a) to investigate whether any person applying for or holding a licence or authorisation is a suitable person for the purposes of

- these Regulations and submit a report of its findings to the Commission;
- (b) to conduct control system reviews and ensure that any person applying for or holding any licence or authorisation in the Territory has the necessary level of technical competence, and submit a report of its findings to the Commission;
- (c) to assist in the application of a continuous compliance program, and submit reports of its findings to the Commission.
- Approved Agent criteria* 141. The Commission may appoint a person as an Approved Agent if it considers that the person has the necessary expertise and is otherwise suitable in consideration of the person's knowledge, skills, training, reputation, character, business reputation, current financial position and financial background.
- Investigative program* 142. The Commission may approve an investigative program in order to verify at any time whether a person is suitable to be an Approved Agent.
- Scope of authority* 143. An Approved Agent will be subject to the directives of the Commission and may not act outside of the scope of authority contained in those directives.
- Term* 144. The Commission may appoint a person as Approved Agent for a period of time not to exceed two years, but such appointment may be renewed an unlimited number of times.

PART XVIII: CONTROL SYSTEMS

- Control system submission* 145. A Control System Submission must be in the form, and contain the information required by, Schedule "I".
- Approved control system* 146. An Authorised Client Provider may conduct, or continue to conduct, an authorised game only if:
- (a) the Authorised Client Provider is the owner or licensee of a control system that has been approved by the Commission; and
- (b) the authorised game is conducted using the approved control system.
- Technical standards* 147. The Commission may approve such technical standards, the provisions of which are compatible with the Law and these Regulations, as are necessary to assist in assessing a Control System Submission and a Control System Change Submission.
- Approved technical standards* 148. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing section 147, the Commission will approve the following technical standards:
- (a) Internet Random Number Generator Requirements;
- (b) Internet Report Requirements;
- (c) Internet Network Infrastructure and Computer Systems Requirements;
- (d) Internet Wagering Application Requirements;
- (e) Internet System Integrity Requirements; and
- (f) Internet Games, General Requirements.
- Material change to approved control system* 149. An Authorised Client Provider may make a material change to an approved control system only:
- (a) if directed by, or with the approval of, the Commission; and
- (b) in the way directed or approved by the Commission.

Failure to report material change	150.	Failure to report a material change of an approved control system to the Commission as required by this Part may result in one or more of the following sanctions: (a) the immediate amendment, suspension or revocation of the Client Provider Authorisation to which the change relates; (b) for each material change that was not reported, a fine of not less than One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars and not more than Twenty Thousand ($20,000.00) Dollars.
Control System Change Submission	151.	An Authorised Client Provider must make a submission (a "Control System Change Submission") to the Commission for approval for a material change to the Authorised Client Provider's approved control system.
Requirements for Control System Change Submission	152.	A Control System Change Submission must be made in writing: (a) at least ninety (90) days before the Authorised Client Provider proposes to start conducting authorised games under the approved control system as proposed to be changed; or (b) if the Commission, in its sole discretion, deems it appropriate, at a later date to be determined by the Commission.
Particulars	153.	A Control System Change Submission must contain particulars of the proposed material changes of the Authorised Client Provider's approved control system.

Production of identification card	306.	An Inspector may exercise a power in relation to someone else only if the Inspector either produces the Inspector's identification card for the other person's inspection or has the identification card displayed so it is clearly visible to the other person.
Production of identification card after the fact	307.	If for any reason it is not practical to comply with the foregoing section before exercising the power, the Inspector must produce the identification card for the other person's inspection at the first reasonable opportunity.

PART XXXI: POWERS OF AN INSPECTOR

- The power to enter places without consent or warrant* 308. An Inspector may, without the consent of the occupier of a premises or a warrant issued by a court of competent jurisdiction enter:
- (a) a public place;
 - (b) a place where an authorised game is being, or is about to be conducted; or
 - (c) a place where a Licence holder, an Authorised Client Provider or an Approved Agent carries on business at any time when the place is open for carrying on business or otherwise open for entry.
- Entry with consent or warrant* 309. Unless an Inspector is authorised to enter a place under the foregoing section, an Inspector may enter a place only if its occupier consents to the entry or if the entry is authorised by a warrant issued by the Court of Kahnawá:ke or other competent authority.
- Consents and warrants for entry* 310. This section applies if an Inspector intends to ask an occupier of a place to consent to the Inspector or another Inspector entering the place. Before asking for the consent, the Inspector must tell the occupier:
- (a) the purpose of the entry; and
 - (b) that the occupier is not required to consent.
- Consent Acknowledgement* 311. If the consent is given, the Inspector may ask the occupier to sign an acknowledgement of the consent (the "Consent Acknowledgment").
- Content of Consent Acknowledgement* 312. The Consent Acknowledgement must state that the occupier has been told:
- (a) the purpose of the entry;
 - (b) that the occupier is not required to consent;
 - (c) the occupier gives the Inspector consent to enter the place and exercise powers under this Part; and
 - (d) the time and date consent was given.
- Must give copy* 313. If the occupier signs the Consent Acknowledgement, the Inspector must promptly give a copy to the occupier and to the Commission.
- Application for a warrant* 314. An Inspector may apply to the Court of Kahnawá:ke or other competent authority for a warrant. The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought.
- Issuance of a warrant* 315. The Court of Kahnawá:ke or other competent authority may issue a warrant only if it is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting:
- (a) there is a particular item or activity that may provide evidence of an offence against the Law, these Regulations or other law applicable within the Territory; and
 - (b) the evidence is at the place or may be at the place within the next seven (7) days.

Content o warrant	316.	The warrant must state: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) that an Inspector may with necessary and reasonable help and force enter the place and exercise the Inspector's powers under this Part and; (b) the offence for which the warrant is sought; (c) the evidence that may be seized under the warrant; (d) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered; and (e) the date, within fourteen (14) days after the warrant's issue, the warrant ends.
General powers of Inspectors after entering places	317.	For monitoring or enforcing compliance with the Law or these Regulations or any other law applicable within the Territory, the Inspector may: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) search any part of the place; (b) inspect, measure, test, photograph or film any part of the place or anything at the place; (c) take an item, or a sample of or from an item, at the place for analysis or testing; (d) copy a document at the place; (e) access, electronically or in some other way, a system used at the place for conducting an authorised game or other interactive game or for administrative purposes related to the conduct of an authorised game or other interactive game; (f) take into or onto the place any person, equipment and materials the Inspector reasonably requires for exercising a power under this Part; (g) require the occupier of the place, or a person at the place, to give the Inspector reasonable help to exercise the Inspector's powers under paragraphs (a) to (f); or (h) require the occupier of the place, or a person at the place, to give the Inspector information to help the Inspector ascertain whether the Law, these Regulations or any other law applicable within the Territory is being complied with.
Failure to help Inspector	318.	When making a requirement mentioned in subsection 317(g) or (h), the Inspector must warn the person it is an offence to fail to comply with the requirement.
Seizing documents or Items at places that may be entered without consent or warrant	319.	An Inspector who enters places that may be entered under this Part without the consent of the occupier and without a warrant, may seize documents or items at the places if the Inspector reasonably believes the documents or items are evidence of an offence against the Law, these Regulations or any law applicable within the Territory.
Seizing documents or items at places that may only be entered with consent or warrant	320.	If the Inspector enters the place with the occupier's consent, the Inspector may seize any document or item at the place if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the Inspector reasonably believes the document or item is evidence of an offence against the Law, these Regulations or any law applicable within the Territory; and (b) seizure of the document or item is consistent with the purpose of entry as told to the occupier when asking for the occupier's consent.
Seizure of documents or items in warrant	321.	If the Inspector enters the place with a warrant, the Inspector may seize the documents or items for which the warrant was issued.
Seizure of other documents or items	322.	The Inspector may also seize any other documents or items at the place

if the Inspector reasonably believes:

- (a) the documents or items relate to an offence against the Law, these Regulations or any law applicable within the Territory; and
 - (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the documents or items being:
 - (i) hidden, lost or destroyed; or
 - (ii) used to continue, or repeat, the offence.
- Grounds for seizure* 323. The Inspector may seize documents or items at the place if the Inspector reasonably believes they are being, have been, or are about to be, used in committing an offence against the Law, these Regulations or any law applicable within the Territory.
- Securing documents or items after seizure* 324. Having seized documents or items, an Inspector may:
- (a) move the documents or items from the place where they were seized (the "place of seizure") to a secure location under the exclusive control of the Commission; or
 - (b) leave the documents or items at the place of seizure but take reasonable action to restrict access to them.
- Tampering with documents or items subject to seizure* 325. If an Inspector restricts access to documents or items subject to seizure, a person must not tamper, or attempt to tamper with the documents or items, or any means used to restrict access to the documents or items, without an Inspector's approval.
- Powers to support seizure* 326. To enable documents or items to be seized, an Inspector may require the person in control of them:
- (a) to take them to a stated reasonable place by a stated reasonable time; and
 - (b) if necessary, to remain in control of them at the stated place for a reasonable time.
- Form of requirement* 327. The requirement:
- (a) must be made by notice in the approved form; or
 - (b) if for any reason it is not practical to give the notice, may be made orally and confirmed by notice in the approved form as soon as practical.
- Further requirement* 328. A further requirement may be made under this section about the same documents or items if it is necessary and reasonable to make the further requirement.
- Receipts to be given on seizure* 329. As soon as practical after an Inspector seizes documents or items, the Inspector must give a receipt for them to the person from whom they were seized.
- Receipt in conspicuous place* 330. However, if for any reason it is not practical to comply with the foregoing section, the Inspector must leave the receipt at the place of seizure in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.
- Description in receipt* 331. The receipt must describe generally each document or item seized and its condition.
- Exemption* 332. This section does not apply to documents or items if it is impractical or would be unreasonable to give the receipt, given the nature, condition and value of the documents or items.
- Forfeiture* 333. Documents or items that have been seized under this Part are forfeited to the Commission if the Inspector who seized the documents or items:
- (a) cannot find their owner, after making reasonable inquiries;

		(b)	cannot return them to their owner, after making reasonable efforts; or
		(c)	reasonably believes it is necessary to retain the documents or items to prevent them from being used to commit an offence against the Law, these Regulations or any law applicable within the Territory.
Exemptions	334.		In applying the foregoing section:
		(a)	subsection 333(a) does not require the Inspector to make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find the owner; and
		(b)	subsection 333(b) does not require the Inspector to make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the documents or items to their owner.
Notice regarding forfeiture	335.		If the Inspector decides to forfeit documents or items under section 333, the Inspector must tell the owner of the decision by written notice.
Exemption	336.		The foregoing section 335 does not apply if:
		(a)	the Inspector cannot find the owner, after making reasonable inquiries; or
		(b)	it is impractical or would be unreasonable to give the notice.

		(a)	the reasons for the decision;
		(b)	that the owner may appeal against the decision to the Commission within thirty (30) days;
		(c)	how the appeal may be made; and
		(d)	that the owner may apply for a stay of the decision if the owner appeals against the decision.
Considerations	338.		In deciding whether inquiries or efforts are to be made or notice given about a document or item, the document or item's nature, condition and value must be considered.
Return of documents or items that have been seized	339.		If documents or items have been seized but not forfeited, the Inspector must return them to their owner:
		(a)	at the end of six (6) months; or
		(b)	if a proceeding for an offence involving the documents or items is started within six (6) months, at the end of the proceeding or any appeal from the proceeding.
Access to documents or items	340.		A document or item must be returned to its owner once the Inspector determines its evidentiary value has ceased.
Inspection of documents or items	341.		Until documents or items that have been seized are forfeited or returned, an Inspector must allow their owner to inspect them and, if it is a document, to copy it unless it is impractical or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.
Application	342.		The sections the follow apply if an Inspector reasonably believes:
		(a)	an item used in the conduct of an authorised game is unsatisfactory for the purpose for which it is used; and
		(b)	the continued use of the item may:
		(i)	jeopardize the integrity of the conduct of authorized games; or
		(ii)	adversely affect the public interest.
Direction to stop using an item	343.		The Inspector may direct the person who has, or reasonably appears to have, authority to exercise control over the item to stop using the item, or allowing the item to be used, in the conduct of authorised games.

Requirements for stop directions	344.	A direction given to a person under the foregoing section (a "Stop Direction") may be given orally or by written notice (a "Stop Notice").
Stop Notice	345.	If the direction is given orally, it must be confirmed by written notice (also a "Stop Notice") given to the person as soon as practical.
Application of Stop Direction	346.	A Stop Direction may be given for an item at a place occupied by a Licence holder, an Authorised Client Provider, an Approved Agent or other person involved within the Territory in the conduct of an authorised game.
Non-application	347.	A Stop Direction does not apply to a use of an item carried out for repairing or testing the item.
Content of Stop Notice	348.	A Stop Notice must state: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the grounds on which the Inspector believes the item is unsatisfactory; and (b) the circumstances, if any, under which the Stop Direction may be cancelled.
