Coast Guard Helicopter flying low

(Kahnawake – 8, Tsothohrhkó:wa/January 2018)

The Public Safety Unit of the Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke wishes to inform the community that there are five commercial ships located west of the Territory that still need to pass through Kahnawà:ke on the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Because of the extreme cold conditions, a Canada Coast Guard helicopter has been flying low to inspect ice conditions.

The ships are all expected to pass by Friday, January 12, which would be the last for the season.

For further information, please call the Public Safety Unit at 450-632-0635.
