PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Road work on Mercier Bridge Postponed

(Kahnawà:ke – 11, Onerahtókha / April 2008) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke would like to inform road users that repairs to the concrete slab of the Mercier Bridge, originally scheduled for this weekend, have been postponed due to poor weather conditions in the forecast. The work has been rescheduled to take place from Friday, April 25th at 10pm until Monday, April 28th at 5am.

During this period, traffic will be re-routed onto the Montreal bound roadway with one lane in each direction. The width of the available lanes will be reduced to 3.3 metres each. The Airlie exit will also be closed during the same schedule.

Please note that work could be postponed to the following weekend in the event of poor weather conditions.

Traffic information is available 24 hours-a-day by calling 1-888-355-0511, #0511 for cell phone users or visit www.kahnawake.com/roadwork .
