PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Ship Loses Steering In Seaway Channel

(Kahnawá:ke – 13, Onerahtókha / April 2007) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawá:ke would like to inform the community that a ship has run aground in the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The Voyager Independence was experiencing problems with its steering mechanism earlier this morning when it collided with the north wall of the seaway at the western entrance.

There were no injuries or damage reported from the ship and there is no danger to the community or environment.

This ship is currently tied off to the emergency docks across from K103 radio station. A tug is expected this evening to tow the vessel.
