Exit Poll Results Announced

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 7, Ohiari'kó:wa/July 2009) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) announced the results of the Exit Poll held during the election held on Saturday, 4 Ohiari'kó:wa/July. The question asked was:

“Do you recognize the Federal (Canadian) Court’s authority to override a decision made by the Court of Kahnawà:ke in respect to Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke elections?”

A total of 758 people participated.

705 people said “no” (93% of those who participated)

50 people said “yes” (6.6% of participants)

3 survey ballots were spoiled.

While this was clearly not intended to be a referendum, it does give the MCK and the community a clear sense of where Kahnawà:kehró:non stand on this issue.
