PRESS RELEASE

Martin Stacey new Director of Lands Unit

For Immediate Release

(Kahnawake – 9, Ohiarikhó:wa/July 2019) The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) wishes to inform the community that Martin Stacey has been selected as the new Director of the Lands Unit, replacing Melanie Gilbert who left to take on the position of the Registrar for the Kanien'kehá:ka of Kahnawà:ke Law and the Kahnawà:ke Residency Law.

Mr. Stacey has worked in various capacities within the Lands Unit, most recently as the General Manager of Lands Management. He began his career at the MCK in 2000.

“We are pleased to make this announcement today,” said Ratsénhaiensh Clinton Phillips, who holds the Lands Portfolio. “I have worked closely with Martin over the past several years. He is a true professional who is completely knowledgeable in the entire spectrum of work that the Lands Unit encompasses.”
