Update on your emergency location

(Kahnawake – 16, Kenténha/October 2019)

The Mohawk Council of Kahnawà:ke (MCK) Public Safety Unit (PSU) is informing community members who have yet to receive their emergency location or anyone who wants to verify if their location is correct with the Emergency Location Mapping System, to contact the PSU or Public Relations.

Community members can contact the PSU in-person (located between Eileen's Bakery and the Services Complex) or by calling 450-632-0635. The MCK Public Relations office is located next to McComber's Convenience and can be called at 450-632-7500.

The Emergency Location Mapping system is used only by Kahnawà:ke's emergency services and is not tied to any online mapping system or GPS. No names are associated with the addresses.
